MUST GO TO SCHOOL.

The State law compelling the attendance of all children of school county. The Telegram publishes below the salient features of the Section 32-Every person having charge of a child between the ages of seven and fourteen shall cause the child to attend public school continuously; failure being punishable by two dollars fine for the first offense, five dollars for subsequent offences. An offence, it is understood, shall consist of a failure of such person to compel the attendance of the child in his care for one fourth of the child in his care for one fourth of the child in his care for one fourth of the child in his care for one fourth of the child in his care for one fourth of the child in his care for one fourth of the child in his care for one fourth of the child in his care for one for the child in his care for the child in his care for the child in his care for the child in fourth of the number of days on net to the honararies and others who never sthe child must be in school oraries. The owners of newspapers three-fourths of the time unless ill or prevented by other reasonable ex-cuse. All fines so collected shall be paid into the hands of the clerk of the board of education who shall turn them over to the city collector for credit to the school fund of the district.

The act provides also how the truant officer shall perform his dut-ies and specifies in what way he is to carry out the provisions of the new law. In this connection it may be well to quote the paragraph referring to offences:

An offense, as understood by this act, shall consist of the failure of such person to send to school any such child or children for one-fourth the number of days on which regular sessions of the public schools are held in any school district, so that such child or children shall not be in attendance for at lease three-fourths of said days in any four consecutive weeks of the school year of such district, unless the attendance of such child or children be prevented by sickness or other reasonable excuse; provided, that if such child or children shall have graduated from a sub-district school, or if such child or children have been otherwise instructed for a like period of time in the branches of learning required b law to be taught in public schools or have already acquired such bran ches, or if, in the opinion of the superintendent of said school district, the mental or physical condition of such child or children is such as to render such attendance inexpedient or impracticable, such penalty should not be incurred.

ROCKEFELLER'S WIG.

It is evident that John D. Rock feller has concluded that giftreligious schools are not going save him in the Great Beyond, and now he is doing every thing unde the sun to prolong his life even to

"He held in his hand a pair of light gloves and over his arm was a fall coat of dark gray. A light colored Fedora has surmounted the head of the richest man in the world. Wonder of wonders! Beneath that was evident that the hair had never been reared by the oil king. It was grown by a poorer and less maligned man. The wig was made of dark gry—stiff and coarse. There was just a suspicion of a part on the left side.

What has led him to cover his head is a matter upon which none of his friends venture to speculate. No indication of why or how long he will wear the new head dress has come to explain the change."

Maybe John has heard about the old church deacon, who often said there was not even a hair between him and Heaven, and there was not -he was bald. And it may be that John is honest enough not to want the people to think that way of him. At any rate he is determined to have something between him and Heaven age should be brought to the attention of every family by the board of education of every district in the already laboring under a delusion. especially those who have had dealings with the "System."

The exhibits are a great thing for the fair and a great advertiser for the exhibitors.

It does all good to see so many specimens of fine live stock at the fair, but it is to be regretted that there are not omre by Harrison county farmers. There is no better grazinfi county in the state, and certainly there ought to be more fine horses and cattle in it than the xhibits of the fair indicate?

The management of the fair has een roundly abused on occasions, but it gets the patronage all the same. The people are on the side I the management and the kickers ar left painfully alont, that is, pain ful to themselves.

If the "Cow Boy" preacher would only come and visit the "pike" like he did a few years ago, when he was loudly moralizing in this section the midway would be complete Even the black tent would not be missed—by him.
